KFA/KFA - Teaching and Learning/iPads for Learning Project

28th November 2020

Dear Parent

iPads for Learning - Delivery Update

Following on from our last update two weeks ago, despite the best efforts of our distribution partner, Jigsaw24, we are still waiting for a delivery date to be confirmed. The unprecedented demand for iPads for the NHS, care homes and education is continuing to cause a shortage nationally. The attached letter contains further details.

Based on the latest information, we are hopeful to have the iPads delivered before Christmas and will continue to keep you updated. While this delay is disappointing, we are continuing to work tirelessly with Jigsaw24 to ensure we receive the iPads as soon as possible.

Many thanks for your continued patience and understanding.

Yours faithfully

Tom Macdonald
Headteacher
